2. RATINGS

Ratings: The Guarantor has been rated by the following credit rating agencies:

S & P: A+ (Negative Outlook)

Moody's: A2 (Stable Outlook)

Fitch: A+ (Stable Outlook)

Each of S&P, Moody's and Fitch is established and operating in the European Community and registered under the CRA Regulation, as set out within the list of registered CRAs dated 6 January 2012¹ by ESMA (<http://esma.europa.eu/page/List-registered-and-certified-CRAs>).

For the purposes of the above, "S&P" means Standard & Poor's Ratings Services, a Division of the McGraw Hill Companies Inc., "Moody's" means Moody's Investors Service Limited, "Fitch" means Fitch Ratings Ltd, and "CRA Regulation" means Regulation (EC) No 1060/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 September 2009 on credit rating agencies.

A: An obligation rated 'A' means a strong capacity to meet financial commitments, but somewhat susceptible to adverse economic conditions and changes in circumstances.

The ratings may be modified by the addition of a plus (+) or minus (-) sign to show relative standing within the major rating categories.

Outlook negative means a rating may be lowered

Moody's: A2:

A : Obligations rated A are considered upper-medium grade and are subject to low credit risk. Moody's appends numerical modifiers 1, 2, and 3 to each generic rating classification from Aa through Caa. The modifier 1 indicates that the obligation ranks in the higher end of its generic rating category; the modifier 2 indicates a mid-range ranking; and the modifier 3 indicates a ranking in the lower end of that generic rating category.

Outlook stable means that the rating is not likely to change.

Fitch: A+ :

A: High credit quality.

'A' ratings denote expectations of low default risk. The capacity for payment of financial commitments is considered strong. This capacity may, nevertheless, be more vulnerable to adverse business or economic conditions than is the case for higher ratings.

The modifiers "+" or "-" may be appended to a rating to denote relative status within major rating categories.

¹ Update to make reference to the latest available list of rating agencies registered under the CRA Regulation on the ESMA website.

Rating Outlooks indicate the direction a rating is likely to move over a one- to two-year period. They reflect financial or other trends that have not yet reached the level that would trigger a rating action, but which may do so if such trends continue. The majority of Outlooks are generally Stable, which is consistent with the historical migration experience of ratings over a one- to two-year period.

the above mentioned ratings are the credit ratings assigned to the Programme: Yes the above mentioned ratings are specific credit ratings only assigned to this Tranche of Notes: No

None of the Issuer, the Guarantor nor the relevant Dealer has authorised, nor does it authorise, the making of any offer to the public of Notes in circumstances in which an obligation arises for the Issuer, the Guarantor, or the relevant Dealer to publish or supplement a prospectus (in any form) for such offer in any jurisdiction except for the Base Prospectus and these Final Terms that are published by the Issuer and the Guarantor for the purpose of an offer to the public of Notes in the Public Offer Jurisdiction(s).

Consent given in accordance with Article 3.2 of the Prospectus Directive (Retail Cascades)

In the context of the Present Non-exempt Offer of Notes, each of the Issuer (with respect to itself) and of the Guarantor (with respect to itself and jointly and severally with the Issuer) accepts responsibility, in each Member State of the Public Offer Jurisdiction(s) for which it has given its consent referred to herein, for the content of the Base Prospectus and of these Final Terms in relation to any person (an "Investor") to whom an offer of any Notes is made by any financial intermediary to whom the Issuer and the Guarantor have given their consent to use the Base Prospectus and these Final Terms (an "Authorised Offeror"), where the offer is made in compliance with all conditions attached to the giving of the consent. Such consent and conditions are described below under "Consent" and "Common conditions to consent". None of the Issuer, the Guarantor nor the relevant Dealer has any responsibility for any of the actions of any Authorised Offeror, including compliance by an Authorised Offeror with applicable conduct of business rules or other local regulatory requirements or other securities law requirements in relation to the Present Non-exempt Offer or/and any Non-exempt Offer.

Save as provided below, none of the Issuer, the Guarantor nor the relevant Dealer has authorised the making of any Non-exempt Offer and none of the Issuer and the Guarantor has consented to the use of the Base Prospectus and these Final Terms by any other person in connection with any Non-exempt Offer of Notes. Any Non-exempt Offer made without the consent of the Issuer and the Guarantor is unauthorised and none of the Issuer, the Guarantor nor the relevant Dealer accepts any responsibility or liability for the actions of the persons making any such unauthorised offer. If, in the context of a Non-exempt Offer other than the Present Non-exempt Offer, an Investor is offered Notes by a person which is not an Authorised Offeror, the Investor should check with such person whether anyone is responsible for the Base Prospectus and these Final Terms in the context of the Non-exempt Offer and, if so, who that person is. If the Investor is in any doubt about whether it can rely on the Base Prospectus and these Final Terms and/or who is responsible for their contents within the framework of a Non-exempt Offer, it should take legal advice and refrain from investing in the Notes until the person responsible for the contents of such Base Prospectus and Final Terms is identified by the Investor and until such Investor estimates that it has received all the relevant information to make an informed assessment regarding the Notes and take his investment decision.

The Issuer and the Guarantor reserve the right to withdraw the present offer, if the minimum amount is not placed or if there are market or other disruptions not enabling a smooth placement or/and settlement of the Notes, as determined by the Issuer or the Guarantor in its sole discretion.

Moreover, the offer of the Notes is subject to the following conditions:
